

Ted Braude -The Boy Whisperer

Bringing Boys Into Young Manhood

Speaker • Author • Therapist • Mentor

No one knows boys, their challenges and their inner-workings like Ted Braude. As a psychologist and therapist for over 30 years, Ted is a highly sought-after speaker and author. His engaging style connects with boys of all ages as well as their parents, teachers, and other staff who all participate in the boys becoming young men. For teenage boys to develop as passionate, productive, purposeful and potent young men, a change is required in what they encounter with parents and other adults. Ted shares a new understanding and experience of power, conflict and love that is crucial for boys to transition into young manhood.

The talks and programs that Ted creates are dedicated to teaching, training and providing the contexts that boys need to mature into the young men they were born to become. This new perspective alleviates conflicts and improves relationships — transforming the lives of boys, young men, parents, and educators alike.

"Ted's amazing! He gives you these little tid bits like 'less is more' or 'put it back on to him'. It just seems so easy..too easy, but it just works. I've been telling all my friends about it, and they can't wait to attend the next Ferocious Love workshop."

How Boys Become Men Popular Presentation Topics for Middle and High School Age

All boys want to play. All boys want to be strong. All boys are born to become men. Each boy, in his own unique way, is becoming the man he was born to become.

I listen to them. I hear them. I help them. You can do it too. I can teach you. They're eager for you to learn.

There are all kinds of boys and each one is meant to become the young man he was born to become. We help them all to make their way into manhood. It calls for an all hands on deck approach. Manhood emerges best when everyone is on board acting effectively.

How Boys Become Men: A Program for Parents of Teenage Boys

Boys mystify and perplex parents. This nuts and bolts presentation changes their world view of boys and answers the question, "why won't he just do what he's suppose to do?" Learn how to end the incessant issues by changing the practices of power, conflict and love in parenting teenage boys and help them grow into the young men they were born to become.

Teaching for Manhood: A Program for Educators

Boys crave an education in becoming a man. This eye opening presentation changes educators' views and methods of engaging boys. Teaching is easier and more effective when they understand how the dynamics of power, conflict and love play a fundamental role in boys' learning and developing into the young men they were born to become.

The Road Map to Manhood: A Program for Teenage Boys

Boys are asking silently for someone to show them the path to manhood. This presentation gives them one. Clearly, step by step and do-able, it provides a map of the great mystery unfolding with its challenges, pitfalls, adventures and perils - the path of becoming the men they were born to become.

Rave Reviews

"Ted Braude led an all-day hands-on workshop involving our boys, our parents & our faculty. To this day – I have never seen our boys more engaged – in anything. This "Boy Whisperer" challenged our faculty to rethink "tolerance of boys" to honoring their essential nature and integrating this into hands-on-learning – critical thinking with open ended outcomes. Fathers, who had mistakenly spent time trying to correct boy impulses – left understanding the need for outlets and engagement. I highly recommend and commend Mr. Braude for his important work demystifying and honoring boys."

—Joanne Swan Jones, Principal Corpus Christi Catholic School

"Ted really made the ideas he had very real, very practical. It is a practice that Ted brings, not just theory. After a workshop with Ted, I can take his ideas and put them in use the very next day in my classroom."

—Maureen Shaughnessey, Founding member and 26 year teacher Oakland Steiner School

"I am truly thankful for our experience and just wanted to let you know that you had a huge influence not only on the kids, but also on myself. Our family would not be where it is without your input and words can never express the gratitude I have for our time together. Thank You! You are one of the wonderful people who are making a difference in this world."

—Jack, father of 3 teenage boys
