

Ferocious LOVE

A Lunch & Learn Program for FCA Moms

Presented by: Ted Braude - The Boy Whisperer

"What do I do with him?"
"He won't listen to a thing I say."
"I am so frustrated!"
"I feel like a complete failure."

Spoken by mothers of teenage boys,
one and all.

Take back control. Become the Queen of your Realm.

The bind mothers find themselves in with their teenage sons is excruciating. They love the [not so little anymore] buggers and the boys drive them crazy . . . their nurturing, caring, prompting and "trying to get him to" falls flat on its face. Their best efforts result in rude, disobedient, sullen, neglectful if not profane and obnoxious behavior.

A teenage boy needs his mother's ferocious love: a love that includes, but transcends the affectionate nurture he received as a little boy. Ferocious Love introduces mothers to the understanding and skills needed to bring a halt to his bad behavior and shepherd the boy into young manhood.

"Ted's amazing! He gives you little tid bits like 'less is more' or 'put it back on to him'. It just seems so easy...too easy, but it just works. I've been telling all my friends about it, and they can't wait to attend the next Ferocious Love workshop."
